ICA Renal/Urology

Objectives

1. Obtain a relevant history and perform an examination of a patient with renal disease, with a focus on factors that may precipitate or exacerbate renal impairment.

2. Understand the relevance and be able to interpret urinary, haematological, biochemical and radiological investigations relevant to renal disease.

3. Demonstrate an awareness of the management principles of acute and chronic renal failure, hypertension, urinary tract infection and fluid and electrolyte abnormalities.